

24 hour turnaround

- The site wanted a new epoxy floor fitting to the wash-up area.
- The equipment was disconnected at 7am.
- The new floor was put down overnight.
- The equipment was deep cleaned before going back to site at 7am the following day where it was re-connected and commissioned ready for use.